rural lines to every house and corner of the prairie.

The Machinery Bill.
Mr. MacKay took up the Machinery Bill in the House of Commons, and said that machinery and implements men in Edmonton are campaigning against him because he has put into the machinery bill a rider which declared, "will never hit an honest man."

Turns Attention to Bennett.

R. B. Bennett, who is to speak here on Saturday night, came in for a scathing rebuke from Mr. MacKay for his display speech at Ottawa, when he said that boudries had been crossed when the British troops were defeated in South Africa. "I have been all the night in the church," said Mr. MacKay, "and say that those stories only existed in the hollow delusions of his own magnified imagination."

"The Sifton government," said the speaker, in an eloquent speech, "is not a government of the people, but of the party; there are even spots on the sun, and Homer used to nod—but the government has passed many years in the sun, and deserves well at your hands, and I will be surprised if fifteen Conservative votes are returned to the next legislature."

Mr. Cross Speaks Briefly.

James McGregor presided, and briefly introduced thy hon. Mr. W. H. Cross, who, in a short speech, told the audience that many years ago the legislation that had been passed in Alberta compared most favorably with that of any other province in the Dominion. Dealing with the railway policy, he said that in Calgary, Conservative members had voted against him for making railways radiate from Edmonton. It was only guilty of that he could be blamed, but it was only because it was in the interests of the whole province that railways should radiate from the capital, and not from north country. Since he was elected in May last, eighty-five miles of railroads have been added in the Ponoka and Dunvegan line, and this summer it would be continued to Groundwood and then on to the Rock River country.

Mr. MacKay set himself right with the audience in the hall, and in a speech in very low tones, when there were shouts of "louder." Mr. MacKay said he had never done his duty in the little he had done, and the audience applauded.

McBride's Appeal.

Produced with a photo-grammar of Mr. Michener on the outside, Mr. MacKay held it up to the audience, and then called for an appeal to clean government.

"I take it that they want honest men in the government, and that they should present honest arguments. It refers to Premier Borden's speech, that he had the power he would hand over the natural resources to Alberta and Saskatchewan, and that he would not stand by him, and then you will get your natural resources."

Mr. Michener was roaring round the province, saying that he was going to take the money and then give it back, but he had told them where he was going to get it. Mr. MacKay, also, was in full fire and brimstone. He had declared that the debt of the province was too high, and that he would not stand by him. In breath, he complained that the government was spending too much money.

"Mr. Michener," said the speaker, "and roar of laughter, 'has preached about the saving of the taxpayers' money, but he did not tell them where he was going to get it. He had told them where he was going to get it."

Mr. Michener had also made the charge that the province in being poor, had financial difficulties, and clamped his bit about the expenditures.

The amount of millions of provincial debts taken by Mr. MacKay was emphasized, "which dollar would he not have spent? Who can our public safety care?"

No parliamentarian is doing a patriotic thing in making wild statements and then going to the public and the markets of the world in that manner.

Other words, after great delay, the opposition leader, Western Expenditure.

Mr. MacKay, in his speech, a pending one of the three prairie provinces since 1896, and said that Alberta had spent $100,000,000, or $22 millions, and Saskatchewan $20 millions. Which proved that he had handled its money most economically. "Take the cost of $100,000,000, and add to it the cost of five dollars to hand over hundred dollars, and in Saskatchewan it was a shade less than three and a half dollars." That spoke volumes for the financial management of the three prairie provinces.

It was not the kind of juggling that the public was going to do, but it was the chewing of the strings afterwards that counted. The public, and not the "mean Sutherland scoundrels" of the opposition, would make very competent judges on the 17th her and vote for Mr. Ewing and Mr. Triesteck.

Appeal for Support.

Mr. MacKay took up the question of railways, and pointed out again to the audience that the 17th mile now in operation in the province as a direct result of the support of the government. "It is not perfect," he said, "for there are spots even on the 17th mile which have not yet had the marsh approval as to the use of the 17th mile. It is a great step forward, but it is far better than no step at all." Mr. MacKay, who always spoke for his party, was in a fit of rage, and was shouting louder than ever, relating the trial, he "tore" his clothes to try to silence the crowd.

The audience was dumbfounded when Mr. MacKay took his seat after such a brilliant speech. Hats were off, and the audience was silent. The speech was long and long, and it was several minutes before the chairman could get order again.

Before the meeting broke up, the meeting broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

GALERAULTH AND HUNTER BIG WINNERS AT SHOW

With regard to Mr. O'Brien's proposal, no private member had a right to speak, and the speaker promptly ruled his motion out of order. Forgetting payment of expenses, and he (Mr. Cross) was looking forward with some interest to the application of the principle to the bill.

Mr. MacKay, who was in a fit of rage, said that if the bill was of no value, then it should be withdrawn. Instead of that, he "tore" his clothes to try to silence the audience.

Good Roads Policy.
Mr. MacKay referred to the good roads policy of the government, by saying that the roads were the best in the country, and that the preparation of four hundred thousand dollars, charged to revenue, one million dollars to the roads, and one million for permanent roads, roads and bridges, and be charged to capital account.

Chalmers the Platform.
The Chalmers interested by saying that he would not be asked to speak, he should confine himself to the question, if he was called on to answer it, he would be called on to answer it.

He then took the platform. He promptly accepted the invitation. "Tom Miller" was the first to speak after the interests of the working class, but it was a strange thing that all the speeches were in favor of the bill, and he turned down. At the time of the Believe mining "battle" in 1911, he had a proposal to spend $165,000 in the Lieutenant Governor's office, and Mr. Lieutenant Governor's office, and Mr. Lieutenant Governor's office, and the bill would never hit an honest man. "I don't think that is a majority, but I can convince him that it is a majority, if he will talk with me now, and if he will do it, then I do not think it is a fair bill I will come to you with my conclusions."

Majority Tired to Be Fair.
Mr. Cross said the speaker had confused the majority with a minority. The parties had been trying to act fairly with the farmers, but occasionally they met a crooked farmer, and to the farmer, the majority was a minority.

These comments generally stipulated that the bill was to be passed, and the remaining agricultural leases had been paid for.

There would be a great improvement in the financial position of the government, and the amount of fifty thousand dollars for the assistance of the victims of the tragedy.

Conservative Leader Condemns Parliament Buildings and Railways

Tells Audience in Macleod Sifton's Railway Policy Covers Only Lines Extending in a Circle With Edmonton
As Centre of Radius

Macleod, Alta., April 2.—Edward Micheuer, leader of the Conservative opposition, held his first meeting of the campaign last night in Macleod, one of the ridings which Premier Sifton is contesting at this election.

Mr. Micheuer attacked the record of the government, centering his criticism chiefly around the financial affairs of the province. He condemned the heavy charges of Parliament buildings, which greatly exceeded the original estimates, he said; and held that this money could have been devoted to road-building with more advantage to the people of the province.

Mr. Micheuer undertook to analyze the railway policy of the Sifton administration, and stated that the railway guarantees covered lines extending in a circle, with Edmonton as a radius.

The question of supplying money at lower rates of interest to farmers was discussed at length and the Conservative leader pledged his support to the project.

Regarding the redistribution bill, he believed that it was devised as a political device without regard to the rights of the people.

The management of the telephone system was discussed and condemned by Mr. Micheuer.

Robert Patterson, the sitting member for Macleod, and A. F. Fwing, K.C., of Edmonton, also spoke.

Campaign Against Mitchell.

Medicine Hat, April 2.—Tory methods are much in evidence here in the hopeless struggle that is being waged against Hon. C. R. Mitchell. Mayor Spencer, who is running as the Tory candidate, has taken a three weeks' holiday from his office and keeps himself in the office of the city engineer. At the same time a veiled threat is held out against the employees of the city who are asked to stay away from the head of the civic administration.

Much indignation is expressed in the city over the course which the mayor has taken and the general opinion is that he should be restrained before he does any more damage to the seat.

Are in Strict Order.

A great deal is being made over a lying statement by Hon. C. R. Mitchell that the new city hall would be built in the city three years ago. As a matter of fact a meeting of the board of trade was held in which it was decided to postpone the election and Mr. Mitchell then advised waiting for a time, saying that a larger and more substantial hall would be built. This was secured after a couple of years or so. Mr. Mitchell never promised a court house, this is still a few weeks ago, but so impoverished are the Tor-

H. W. McKEENEY, who was tendered the nomination for the Conservative convention in the new riding of Cranbrook, in a Willowdale hall of Cranbrook, where he has the support of a large majority of the voters.

ies for something to put against the

by all citizens of good sense.

According to information which has reached the Liberal leaders here, the President of the Polar Invaders, a veritable army of street workers
from Manitoba, and Saskatchewan, from the hills and mountains, under
Hon. Robert Rogers, is trying to defeat the Sifton government and instill at Edmonton
the same spirit of discontent which exists in the Manitoba organization such as he has built up in Winnipeg and which was instrumental in bringing about the present condition in the majority of the Manitoba constituencies.

Mr. Rogers, who is chief of the Manitoba brigade and who was in Ottawa last week, went from that city to Winnipeg and is now in the city on his way westward to take general charge of operations in Alberta. The main of the opposition he is expected to encounter is in Edmonton where he is confident of finding a fellow who was conspicuous in the Manitoba outrages a few months since,
and who was instrumental in getting the forces of the Province of Saskatchewan to direct the forces of Mr. Rogers against the Sifton government.

The Southern Overseer.

Mr. Frank Chittick, an ex-detective, has been engaged to in charge of the operations in the southern part of the Province, with Hon. C. W. Cross, Hon. A. G. Mac-Kay and others. Hon. C. W. Cross and Mr. James Carter, posing as a retired real estate dealer, is also reported to be the overseer of the southern part of the Province.

Other stories are coming in from other parts of the country purporting to represent this kind of campaign being carried on by some of these newcomers. Some of them are offered with refusal of patent unless they "vote right"; others promised patents if they do "vote right"; others offered money, teams, horses and other valuables to the voters of their respective districts; such are the accounts of how the campaign is being conducted in the more remote parts of the country.
In the cities, where scrutiny is more difficult, the campaign is expected to be adopted, differing in character but possibly not in moral quality.

Mr. Rogers' Plan.

Mr. Rogers' plan is to get the people to pay him a certain sum and then to provide a horde of notorious election workers.

WILL BE FORCED INTO CANADA Paper Manufacturers in United States Favor Removal of Duty.

New York, April 2.—The placing of news print on the free list will result in the removal of all the International Paper company's plants from this country to Canada, according to F. T.
Hodges, president of the New York branch of the International, says Mr.
Hodge, but to all the paper manufacturers at present located in the United States.

The Canadian government has offered many independent American paper companies, and several of the larger ones have made preparations for such a movement.

Mr. Hodges says the removal of the will not reduce prices radically,
